WELCOME

SOME PLACES YOU BOOK.
THIS ONE, YOU BELONG TO.

Every celebration deserves a destination that feels timeless. Surrounded by nature and built with elegance, Alora brings together luxury, hospitality, and the kind of experiences that turn a single event into a family's story for years after.

LUXURY

Intentional design
and refined details
that create an experience beyond expectation.

NATURE

Rooted in the purity of nature — where hills, water, and open spaces become part of your story.

CELEBRATIONS

Crafted for once-ina-lifetime moments
and the people
who make them unforgettable.

HOSPITALITY

Thoughtful care,
genuine warmth,
and service that make every guest feel truly valued.

WHY ALORA

WHERE MEMORIES BECOME TRADITIONS

Four things Alora refuses to compromise on:

Luxury - nothing borrowed, nothing generic.

Nature - hills, water, and open land, not a backdrop painted on.

Celebrations - built for the day that matters most.

Hospitality - the kind a family remembers by name,
not by room number.

THE ALORA STORY

IT STARTED WITH A VIEW NOBODY
WANTED TO CHOOSE BETWEEN

Alora wasn't built on one idea - it was built where three converged: a hill, a stretch of open water, and a working farmland nobody wanted to build over. The architecture follows that instinct - modern where it needs to be, quiet where it should be, and never louder than the land it sits on. A short drive from Nagpur, close enough to reach easily, far enough to feel like you've actually left.

DESTINATION WEDDINGS

THIS IS THE DAY EVERYTHING ELSE GETS MEASURED AGAINST

From the first Haldi to the last dance at the reception, Alora is built to hold every version of a wedding week - the loud ones, the quiet rituals, the ones with four hundred guests and the ones with forty. Engagement. Mehendi. Haldi. Sangeet. The wedding. The reception. Six different moods, six different corners of the same property, none of them borrowed from somewhere else.

WEDDING VENUES

FOUR SPACES. ONE JOURNEY.

THE LAWN

Open ground for a full procession and reception together.

THE BANQUET HALL

5,000 sq. ft.,
seats up to 400.

THE POOLSIDE

Smaller, evening-lit, built for the
after-hours.

THE OPEN DECK

For the moments too intimate for a hall.

No shuttle buses between venues. No second booking.
Just a short walk, and a different mood each time.

CORPORATE EXPERIENCES

WHERE THE NEXT DECISION GETS MADE

Annual Meets. Dealer Meets. Leadership Retreats. Product Launches. Training Sessions. Award Nights. Alora trades the fluorescent-lit conference room for something a leadership team actually wants to sit in - full AV support, high-speed WiFi, and enough space outside the room to think when the meeting's over.

THE STORY CONTINUES

SOME PLACES HOST EVENTS.
SOME BECOME PART OF THE MEMORIES.

Long after the flowers have faded and the music has quietened,
what remains are the moments shared, the people who gathered,
and the place that quietly held them all together.

Whenever another celebration begins,
perhaps the journey simply finds its way back here.
